STATE OF ILLINOIS :

COUNTY OF COOK :

IN THE SUPERIOR COURT OF COOK COUNTY.

CHRISTINE BECKER CALLAGHAN :
vs. : Gen. No.
WILLIAM P. CALLAGHAN :

BILL FOR DIVORCE .

Humbly complaining unto your Honors, your oratrix, Christine Becker Callaghan, of the City of Chicago, County of Cook and State of Illinois, shows that she is and for more than one year last past continuously, immediately preceding the filing of this Bill of Complaint for divorce, has been an actual resident of the State of Illinois. .

Your oratrix further shows unto your Honors that she was lawfully joined in marriage on, to-wit; March 26th, 1913, in the City of Chicago, county and state aforesaid to William P. Callaghan, whom your oratrix prays may be made a party defendant hereto and from thence hitherto until on, to-wit; the early part of March, 1921, your oratrix and the said defendant lived and cohabited together as husband and wife; that during all the time your oratrix and the said defendant so lived and cohabited together as husband and wife, your oratrix conducted herself toward the said defendant as a good, true and faithful wife, faithfully performing all her obligations and duties and at all times treating the said defendant with kindness and affection and in all things acting and conducting herself in a manner well becoming a good, true, faithful and devoted wife.

Your oratrix further shows unto your Honors that as a result of the said marriage one child, William Callaghan, age, to-wit; four and one-half years, was born unto herself and the said defendant.

Your oratrix further shows unto your Honors that the said defendant, William P. Callaghan, has been guilty of extreme and repeated cruelty and in utter disregard of his marriage voew and obligations, has punched, shoved and pushed your oratrix in anger and did further abuse your oratrix, calling her vile and vulgar names in the presence of her said child.

Your oratrix further shows unto your Honors that during, to-wit; the month of February, 1921, the said William P. Callaghan, struck, punched and kicked your oratrix about the head, and body, using vile and vulgar language toward her and that by reason of said violence her face and body became bruised and discolored.

Your oratrix further shows unto your Honors that during, to-wit; the month of January, 1921, the said defendant, William P. Callaghan, struck, and punched your oratrix about the body and head, using vile and vulgar language toward her and by reason of said violence her face and body became bruised and discolored.

Your oratrix further shows unto your Honors that the said defendant, William P. Callaghan, wholly regardless of his duties and obligations, shortly after the said marriage, commenced the excessive use of intoxicating liquors and for more than two years last preceeding the month of March, 1921, has been guilty of habitual drunkenness and remained in an intoxicated condition; almost continuously; that while he is thus intoxicated he is very quarrelsome and mistreats your oratrix and the said minor child using abusive and opprobrious epithets rendering your oratrix's condition intolerable and her life burdensome.

Your oratrix further represents unto your Honors that the said defendant is a man of violent and ungovernable temper, that his displays of anger are becoming more frequent and that your oratrix is in great fear for her safety and that of her child on such occasions and your oratrix has good reason to fear and does fear that she will suffer great bodily harm and injury unless the said defendant be restrained and enjoined from visiting and troubling her by an injunction of this honorable Court.

Your oratrix further shows unto your Honors that the household goods at her present place of address were acquired by the defendant and your oratrix at and since the time of their said marriage and that the said goods and chattels are only sufficient and necessary to maintain a home for herself and children; that she received no income from any source and that the defendant William P. Callaghan is an able bodied man and well able to work and earn sufficient moneys to support your oratrix and their said minor child.

WHEREFORE YOUR ORATRIX PRAYS that the said defendant may, by this honorable Court, be required to pay to your oratrix a reasonable sum for the support and maintenance of herself and their said minor child, during the pendency of this suit and such further sum or sums as may be necessary to enable her to carry on her Bill for Divorce and to pay solicitor's fees and to defray the other necessary costs and expenses thereof.

IN CONSIDERATION WHEREOF and for as much as your oratrix is without adequate relief in the premises, except in a court of chancery where matters of this nature are properly cognizable and relievable, to the end, therefore, that the said William P. Callaghan, may, if he can, show why your oratrix should not have the relief herein prayed for, and that he may full, true and perfect answer make, but not under oath, (answer under oath being hereby expressly waived) to all and singular the matters and things herein stated and charged and that the said marriage between your oratrix and the said defendant may be dissolved and declared null and void by the decree of this honorable court according to the statute in such cases made and provided, and that the said William P. Callaghan may be compelled to make suitable provision for the support and maintenance of your oratrix and their said minor child; to-wit; William Callaghan and that the care, custody, control and education of the said minor child are hereby prayed for according to the statute in such cases made and provided and that the said William P. Callaghan, his servants, agents, attorneys and solicitors may, each and all of them, be enjoined and restrained from coming into the home at 2849 Wallace Street, now occupied by your oratrix and her said minor child or in anywise molesting or interfering with your oratrix's possession of the said child and of the household goods and furniture therein until further order of court; and that your oratrix may have such other and further relief in the premises as to your Honors shall seem meet according to equity and good conscience.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR HONORS to grant unto your oratrix the writ of summons in chancery issued out of and under the seal of this honorable Court to be directed to the said defendant, William P. Callaghan, therein and therein and thereby commanding him by a certain day to be therein inserted that he personally be and appear before this honorable Court upon the first day of the November term, A. D., 1921 to be holden in the Court house of Chicago, in the county and state aforesaid, then and there to abide and perform such order, direction and decree as to your Honors shall seem meet to equity and good conscience.

And your oratrix as in duty bound, will ever pray, etc.

WILLIAM P. CALLAGHAN

This day came again the said Complainant by Joseph V. Bolton Esq., her Solicitor, and it appearing to the Court that said Defendant has had due notice of the pendency of this suit by personal service of the summons upon him according to the Statute in such case made and provided, that the default of said Defendant was taken and the Complainant's Bill of complaint herein taken as confessed by said Defendant.

And the Court having heard the testimony taken in open Court, in support of said Bill of Complaint (a certificate of which evidence is filed herein), and now being fully advised in the premises, doth find that it has jurisdiction of the parties hereto and the subject matter hereof; that the Complainant is and since prior to the filing of said Bill of Complaint has been an actual resident of Cook County, and has been a resident of the State of Illinois for over one whole year next before the filing of the Bill of Complaint herein, that the parties hereto were lawfully joined in marriage on March 26th, 1913 in the City of Chicago, State of Illinois that subsequent to their intermarriage the Defendant has committed adultery been guilty of extreme and repeated cruelty toward the complainant with intent to desert and absented himself from the Complainant without any reasonable cause been guilty of habitual drunkenness for the space of two successive years prior to the filing of the bill in this cause as charged in the Complainant's Bill of complaint.

On motion of said Solicitor for the Complainant, it is therefore ordered, adjudged and decreed, and this Court by virtue of the power and authority therein vested, and the Statute in such case made and provided, doth order, adjudge and decree, that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the Complainant CHRISTINE BECKER CALLAGHAN and the Defendant WILLIAM P. CALLAGHAN be and the same are hereby dissolved, and the same are dissolved accordingly.

It is further ordered adjudged and decreed that the Complainant herein be and she is hereby given the sole control and custody of their minor child William Callaghan and that the defendant herein contribute the sum of nine dollars per week toward the support of the complainant and toward the support, education and maintenance of their said minor child.

CERTIFICATE OF EVIDENCE.

BE IT REMEMBERED, that on the 25th day of November,
A. D., 1921, being one of the days of the November Term of said court, the above entitled cause came on to be heard before the undersigned, his Honor, JOSEPH SABATH, one of the Judges of said court, the complainant appearing in person and by her solicitor, Joseph V. Bolton, and the defendant appearing not but being in default, the complainant to maintain the allegations of the bill of complaint on her part, introduced the following evidence:

CHRISTINE BECKER CALLAGHAN,

the complainant, being called as a witness and first duly sworn, testified in her own behalf as follows:

THE COURT: What is the charge?

MR. BOLTON: Cruelty and drunkenness; ... personal service.

THE COURT: Q What is your name, please?

A Christine Becker Callaghan.

Q Where do you live?

A At 2849 Wallace street.

Q In the City of Chicago?

A Yes, sir.

Q How long had you been living in Chicago, Cook County, Illinois, immediately preceding the filing of this divorce bill?

A I was born here; have lived here all my life.

Q How old are you?

A Twenty-eight.

Q Are you married to the defendant?

A Yes, sir.

Q Where were you married?

A At the Church of the Nativity.

Q When were you married?

A March 26th, 1913.

Q In the City of Chicago?

A Yes, sir.

Q Are you living with the defendant now?

A No, sir.

Q When did you separate?

A Eight months ago.

Q What date?

A The 20th of April.

Q This year?

A Yes, sir.

Q Were any children born of the marriage?

A Yes, sir, a boy five years old.

Q Living with you?

A Yes, sir.

Q Do you desire to keep his custody?

A Yes, sir.

MR. BOLTON: Q Are you working now? A Yes, sir, I am working every day.

Q How much do you make a week? A Fifteen dollars.

THE COURT: Q Where are you working?

A I am making canvass for coats, in a tailor shop.

MR. BOLTON: Q What were the habits of Mr. Callaghan as to sobriety? A Well, he never worked steady.

Q I mean as to being drunk or sober?

A He has been drunk most of the time.

THE COURT: Q How many years last past has he been drinking?

A He has been in the army about three years. He has threatened me with a knife and everything - I couldn't live with him.

MR. BOLTON: Q How frequently was he drunk?

A I would say four times a week.

THE COURT: Q Are you asking for alimony?

A Of course, I would like to get it.

Q What does he do?

A Odd jobs. He never had a steady job. I always tried to help him.

Q If you get eight dollars a week can you get along on that?

A I had him in Domestic Relations court twice and I never got anything. I would like to have nine dollars for the lady taking care of the little boy. I would be glad if that were paid to her for the little boy.

THE COURT: Make it nine dollars.

(Witness excused).

ALOISE HRUBY,

being called as a witness and first duly sworn, testified in behalf of the complainant as follows:

MR. BOLTON: Q What is your name?

A Aloise Hruby.

Q Where do you live? A At 2849 South Wallace street.

Q Do you know Mr. and Mrs. Callaghan?

A Yes, I have known them over four years.

Q During that time you lived right in the rear of their place? A Yes.

Q During the time you knew them what were Mr. Callaghan's habits as to being drunk or sober?

A I saw him so many times drunk, when I saw him.

Q How often a month did you see him drunk, just an average - ten times? A Ten or fifteen times.

THE COURT: Q How many times was he drunk that way?

A Well, I know him over four years.

Q Drunk pretty often, was he?

A He was drunk often.

Q Did you ever see him stagger? A Yes.

Q Do you know what he was drinking mostly?

A Yes.

Q What was he drinking?

A When I saw him he was drunk.

Q How long have you been in Chicago? A Thirty-four years.

BESSIE WELLIK,

being called as a witness and first duly sworn, testified on behalf of the complainant as follows:

EXAMINATION BY MR. BOLTON:

Q What is your name? A Bessie Wellik.

Q Where do you live? A At 2901 Wallace street.

Q Do you know the Callaghans? A Yes.

Q How long have you known them? A Three years.

Q During that time have you observed Mr. Callaghan's habits as to sobriety, or whether drunk or sober?

A Yes.

Q About how often was he drunk?

A Oh, he was often drunk - five or ten times a month.

Q Five or ten times a month? A Yes, sir.

Q How long have you known him? A I have known him three years.

Q You saw him frequently? A Yes.

MR. BOLTON: That is all.

(Witness excused).

THE COURT: Write it up.

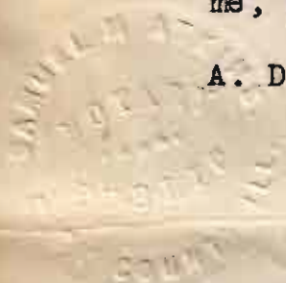

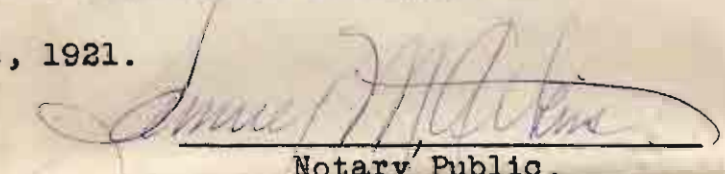

Which was all the evidence offered or heard upon the trial of this case.
